

John Perkins Center, Seattle Pacific University

Closing Blessing for JVMPF Dr. Perkins Bible Study with Dr. Tony Evans

Tuesday, June 30, 2020

Passage focus: 2 Chronicles 15:5-6

Blessing provided by Caenisha Warren, Executive Director of the John Perkins Center

Blessing:

To the God who troubles,
open our eyes and turn our hearts to you and to the compassion of your kingdom.

To the God of divine disruption, open the church to operate within our divine purpose for such a time as this.

To the God of the marginalized, open our eyes and turn our hearts to one another and to those who suffer.

To the God of authority, open the church to unlock the doors of heaven to dismantle oppressive systems and bring about your righteousness and justice.

To the God of righteousness and justice, open hearts to embrace discomfort that may lead to change,
open our actions to engaging injustice for peace, and cultivate our relationships to reset a culture of Biblical love

Amen

View JVMPF Bible Study on

- JVMPF Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/watch/live/?v=2657557804523310>
- Youtube: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VFXFIZCpdfo&feature=youtu.be>